

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE NON-PROFIT GOVERNANCE

1997 - 2004

Director/CEO, Magic In Believing Institute, Seattle, WA

The Magic In Believing Institute was incorporated in 1997 as a non-profit organization under the laws of the State of Washington. The mission of the organization was to develop and provide programs for young adults through its education division and work training through its human resources division as a Washington Department of Corrections Worksite providing programs to perform community service hours for adults in the criminal justice system.

2012 – Present

Director/Vice President/Secretary, Central Area Documentary Project Association, Seattle, WA

The Central Area Documentary Project Association is a qualified 501(c)(3) tax-exempt organization. It was founded in 2012 as a non-profit organization under the laws of the State of Washington.

The mission and purpose of the organization is to document the people, places and events that represent the history and legacy of Seattle's Central District. The organization accomplishes this by producing of an ongoing series of videos entitled “The CD Uncovered” where past and current residents tell the stories that created the fabric of Seattle's Central District.

2016 – Present

Director/CEO, Seattle Walk of Fame Association, Seattle, WA

The Seattle Walk of Fame Association was formed in 2016 as a non-profit organization under the laws of the State of Washington. The mission of the Seattle Walk of Fame Association is to create and establish a centrally located permanent public memorial to honor the contributions of significant people from of the City of Seattle.

2026 - Present

Director/Position 6, (CDCPDA)

Central District Community Preservation and Development Authority, Seattle, WA

The Central District Community Preservation and Development Authority is a Washington State chartered public organization established in 2019 by the WA State Legislature. The mission of the Central District Community Preservation & Development Authority (CDCPDA) is to preserve and enhance history Seattle's Central District by revitalizing the historic Seattle Vocational Institute (SVI)/Seattle Opportunities Industrialization Center (SOIC) which is now known as the McKinney Center for Community & Economic Development (MCCED). The McKinney Center has a history of being an integral part of vocational training, employment, and community advancement since 1974. The CDCPDA collaborates with residents, businesses, and local organizations to shape a vibrant future for the Central District while honoring its past.